Dogs are tops 35 percent of Canadian households include at least one canine and anyone whos been owned by one (yes, thats right) will tell you why: we share in each others joy and pain; they cheer us up when were blue; they strive to please us and are indispensable workers, serving us even at their peril; we pamper and play with them, train them and take them for walks (actually, they take us); they sleep in our beds; sit on our laps; and if we let them they will follow us to the ends of the earth. But do we really know what they think This collection is for anyone who has ever wondered what constitutes dog breath to a dog, the real reason why dogs hate doggie coats, or why they replaced woolly mammoths as mans best friend. The answer to the last question is that dogs shed less. But for other profound, hilarious and sometimes poignant observations, like why dogs shouldnt open restaurants, or what would happen if a dog actually caught a car, readers need look no further than Tails Dont Lie the best of...
