Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Infantry, has been no easy task. During the almost a half century that has elapsed since the Regiment was mustered into the service, a large majority of the principal actors in the great drama enacted from 1861 to 1865. has passed from the stage of action into the great beyond. Few regiments that went out from the State of Pennsylvania had so many of their original members, seal their devotion to the Union by giving their all - their lives, the last full measure of devotion - to preserve its integrity, and to the proposition that all men are created equal. Forty per cent of the men and boys who accompanied the standard of the first Regiment to the seat of war sleep in Southern graves. Twice have the company and regimental records been entirely lost in battle, first in front of Seven Pines, early in 1862. and two years later,...
