Five monologues, in the form of short letters, take you into the thoughts and reflections of the traditional Advent figures as they share their experiences with those close to them. The vignettes may be memorized or may be presented in a modified reader s theater format -- the reader actually reading the letter aloud as it is being written. The letters are from: The angel to a friend The shepherd to his family The wise man to his court Mary to her mother Jesus to the children Each letter is followed by a hymn suggestion.
