But if opium produces nearly the same effects (as it is said to do) we must look for some other cause of the efficacy of wine, and refer it to some qualities which it possesses in common with opium, which can be no other than those of a sedative and cordial kind, the action of which is confined to the nervous system only. O R D O II. Phlegm Asiae. GENUS IX. Ph R EN I T I s. ATTENTION to mental affections is here highly necessary. Some of the writers of antiquity have given very judicious directions with regard to this point. Aretaeus condescends to remark several circumstances apparently minute, but in reality very important. Thus he advises quiet and calmness both to the sick person and his attendants, and that he should be placed in a chamber of...
