With those two simple words, you enter into a lifelong commitment with another soul. Neither of you is perfect. You ll have disagreements and misunderstandings. Sometimes you ll fight. But if you love each other as God intended, you ll experience a life of mutual joy. #RelationshipGoals: Loving the Right Way examines the roots of serious marriage problems often overlooked and only rarely discussed in public. These problems disrupt the loving marriages God wants us to enjoy. They also contribute to rising divorce rates and single-parent households. Join author, husband, and father Travis Scott McMillan as he reveals how a marriage grounded in divine principles avoids the dangers of selfishness, competition, unrealistic expectations, disrespect, and infidelity. McMillan covers all aspects of a healthy marriage, from working on friendship and respect to renewing a sense of intimacy and purpose. Written for newlyweds, couples considering marriage, and those who have been married for years, #RelationshipGoals: Loving the Right Way is an indispensable resource for both men and women. In clear, empathetic language, it offers God-given solutions to issues and attitudes that could otherwise undermine a marriage.
