

Creative Composites: Modernism, Race, and the Stieglitz Circle (Hardback)

By Lauren Kroiz

University of California Press, United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In turn-of-the-century New York, the photographer and modern art impresario Alfred Stieglitz and his allies embraced a racialized aesthetic discourse in their expressions of identity in the modern era. This book examines the often-neglected role played by immigrant artists and critics in the Stieglitz circle, including Japanese-German author Sadakichi Hartmann, Mexican-born caricaturist Marius de Zayas and English Sri-Lankan curator Ananda Coomaraswamy, as well as better-known U.S.-born painters, including Arthur Dove and Georgia O Keeffe. Creative Composites argues for a new understanding of early American modernism as a composite modernism . It analyzes episodes in the Stieglitz circle s use of diverse new media - photography, caricature, film, and collage - to frame their modernist practice as part of the ongoing national dilemma of integrating difference.
