Hen in the red vintage of the western sky Dissolves the pearl of light away, In a far-off ruby-gold sea, when the dim wings of Twilight are rustling by, And tender penciled fancies play, I think of thee, I think of thee. When parted the purple curtains of the night, And on her couch of dewy space
The earth has loosed her robes of pearl; When the gray moon is lost in another s light, And dreams in noiseless resting place, Thou art my world, thou art my world. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
