MINUTES OF THE TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL SESSION SYNOD OF NEW YORK: HELD IN THE CITY OF MIDDLETOWN, OCTOBER 18-20, A. D., 1904; WITH AN APPENDIX (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Minutes of the Twenty-Third Annual Session Synod of New York: Held in the City of Middletown, October 18-20, A. D., 1904; With an Appendix Dr. Hoyt in his chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology has broadened the work of his department from his extended studies abroad, and has quickened the investigation of present day practical social problems. Prof. Miller in Church History and Church Polity holds the interest and awakens personal study by the young men to attain a clear apprehension of the development of the church for a working appreciation of present conditions. The professors are alert to enrich their departments with the most recent and most helpful material, and while many seminaries exceed Auburn in the number of instructors, none excel Auburn in the quality of the work done or in the results attained. One reason of the high grade of the work done at Auburn is the maintenance of the high standard of scholarship and ability for admission in this seminary. It is held that those who are not qualified by previous study to keep position with men well prepared, should not be allowed to hold back to their requirement, those who are qualified for more advanced work and thus lower the standard of progress and attainment for the ministry. On this account, seventeen applicants, in the past year have been turned away. For the physical culture of the men there is need of a gymnasium that may be used in the winter. A ball ground and tennis court are helpful. One of the material additions of the year is the student Club House made possible by the liberality of...
