Dolores A. Schafer, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There are so many life stories that need to be told. Men and women that have shaped and molded art history. One such as this, an Ohioan, rooted in the mid-west, but extensively represented throughout the world. Don Drumm, needed his story to be told! He has left an indelible mark on art. These are the feelings and comments of some avid patrons attending the annual OPEN HOUSE: Walking through the Gallery is food for the soul. The Drumm tree wall sculpture is magnificent, you don t see anything like this anywhere. D.W. I like this Gallery because it is unique; I like the suns, they make me happy. I love the horses and hope to have some one day. I like his crosses, they are different, not boring. A.H. He is understated. Anonymous Every time I come in I am overwhelmed with this Gallery. The skills that go into each one s creations is remarkable. More people need to be aware of it. It is a HIDDEN TREASURE in Akron, Ohio. C.H. My family has been coming here for years. Grandparents, aunts, uncles and on and on. I prefer to leave the ornaments out all year round. They have a lot of meaning behind each ornament. I love the Madonna and child, they are so peaceful. S.D. Dr. Sam Ghoubrial, an internal medicine physician, in Wadsworth, Ohio has become a real connoisseur of the Don Drumm mystique. In 2011 Dr. Ghoubrial was in the process of decorating his new office and discovered the Don Drumm and Gallery. Dr. Ghoubrial: You cannot just have one, it s like eating a potato chip. One piece leads to another. The artistic flair is so...
