Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The author is Mr. Allwell C. Onwu. I was born, and raised in one of the most olden family in West African Nigeria. I was nine years old when I lusted my father in the month of July 13th of 1986. It was a total lust and disappointment on my own side in terms of Education and gender orientation. Mom and good friends, those of my age mates never gave up hope in my own abilities to get things done, in our community and within and outside of such parameters. I was able to focus and graduated my secondary school in the year 1997. During my entire educational carrier, I was among the best in my school years. Life have never been the same again in my family since I took up the stand that all men survived, but I so much admitted that we as the younger once in this twenty first centuries must place our school bags in a height that can be easily reached with or without another s assistance. All hope was never lost throughout my entire carriers in life, I did made the right choice; to stand out for peace and freedom of every man, first in my family, and last within my own immediate family. Every other thing was observatory from role models that are around me, just like those once in your own families; we never talk to each other but we all see one another for what they can do as much as they are able to represent themselves as such. I am a man from Nkerehi Town. A citizen of United State of America at this time of...
