Juan Harris It s hard to pin Max down. His adventures fly through the air and land like gooney birds at every turn. But, even when he appears to be a man of the open road, his roots fan deep into the central California soil where he farms every imaginable crop, including grapes that find their way into fine California wine. His mother dies without warning and his father is driven by heartache to find a new life in Idaho. Max stays behind and finds contentment with life on the BAR-4 commune farm where he was born. He works with partner Josh to grow grapes that are processed into top-notch California wines. During the off season Max goes into Los Angeles and works as an engineer .but at the ranch he meets a gorgeous grape picker, and the sky becomes the limit. He marries lovely Raquel who dies in childbirth leaving partner Josh and Josh s wife Alecia to rear Max s daughter. Max heads back to LA and his high tech job but after a major...
