Environmental Protection Agency, Office of Cooperative Environmental Management, 2006. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)226233247 Subject: Environmental policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . II. Introduction In October 2004, the Office of Research and Development (ORD) of the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) requested that the National Advisory Council for Environmental Policy and Technology (NACEPT) form a broad-based Subcommittee of technology experts to address issues and advise the EPA Administrator on the present focus and status of environmental technology programs within the Agency (see Appendix A for the full text of the Subcommittee charge document). On November 3, 2004, the Subcommittee on Environmental Technology was formed (see Appendix B for the membership list) and shortly thereafter held its first meeting. The charge document posited the following core question: How can EPA better optimize its environmental technology programs to make them as effective as possible in promoting the research, development, commercialization, and implementation of sustainable private-sector technologies; and what other programs and activities should it undertake to achieve this...
