PERSONAL TESTIMONY I never dreamed of making public some of the secrets of my life along the line of personal giving, but I feel that the Lord wants me to do so; therefore, for the glory of God I want to finish my little book with my own testimony concerning GIVING unto the Lord. By His help and grace I have lived all my life through very economically, so as to save every dollar and every cent possible for the cause of Christ. I do not think I have spent forty dollars altogether for my clothing in all these twenty-three years or more I have been in America. The winter hat that I wear now was bought for twenty-five cents, and this is the fifth winter I am using it. I have heard repeated compliments from my friends as to how nice it looks, although many of them do not know its price, nor how long I have been wearing it. Usually I buy a frame for fifteen or twenty cents, and trim it myself with some pieces of silk or satin from among my goods. Careful washing and pressing do not generally spoil these goods. One hat frame serves me all the year round, and often quite a number of years. I take off the trimming of one season and put on that which is appropriate for the following season. The same has been the case with many of my clothes; that is,...
