Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 60 pages. Dimensions: 10.5in. x 7.0in. x 0.5in. In The Legend of White Horse the author expresses his personal philosophy on the subject of Higher Consciousness and fulfillment of our unlimited capacity through the words and demeanor of the main character, White Horse. Every quote from White Horse conveys the principle of our responsibility to always do our best in all our tasks and responsibilities and our ability to achieve great deeds when we attain harmony with the Way of the Spirit (the Universal Laws of God). White Horse is the Mystical Warrior sent by the Great Spirit to help his people return to the Way and to once more enjoy its consequential wellbeing, peace and prosperity. From his birth to his passing into the Spirit World (the legend tells that White Horse never died, but that he invoked the Spirit and opened the shimmering door and entered into the Spirit World), White Horse mission is to teach his people the basic requirements to advance in their journey to become Mystical Warriors, whose responsibility is to be an example for others and to protect and provide for the wellbeing of their people. At his first official presence as a Council member, White Horse was asked to share his vision for his people and he addressed his elders: We must seek the valuable lessons in every adversity by detaching from the situation and expecting the best outcomes and a greater good for all; for life is hard for all who do not observe and honor the Way of the Spirit with gratitude and thanksgiving. We should always keep our word, for the words of a warrior are truth and contribute to the common good of our people by increasing harmony with our sacred traditions; it is by...
