Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Word of the Lord Endureth Forever: A Sermon Delivered in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City, Sunday, December 7, 1919 The sense of the value of the holy Scriptures has not only revived, but it has spread throughout the modern world. Recent voices of all sorts might be quoted bearing proof of this. The testimonies of Professor Huxley, Matthew Arnold and Lord Mor ley are familiar. M. Renan has called it The great book of consolation for humanity. President Roosevelt has said of it, No thoughtful man can doubt that to decrease the circulation and use of the Bible among the people would seriously menace the highest interests of civilized humanity. President Lincoln s presidential addresses could never have been written but for its inspiration. Not the least impressive of the modern American testimonies to the Bible are the words of Mark Twain who said. Who taught these ancient writers their simplicity of language, their felicity of expression, their pathos, and above all their faculty of sinking themselves entirely out of the sight of the reader, and making the narrative stand out alone and seem to tell itself? In recent days we have those remarkable testimonies of General Foch, Lord Haig, Lord Roberts and others, which are well known and often quoted. General Pershing has said to his soldiers, Hardship will be your lot, but trust in God will give you com fort; temptation will befall you, but the teachings of our Saviour will give you strength. Admiral Sims has added his testimony that This Testament is a handbook of manhood; it introduces you to the pattern Man, Who shows you what to become and the way to...
