

The Clone Who Loved to Bake Bread (Paperback)

By M G Lewis

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.John doesn't want to believe he's a clone. Can you blame him? He's seen the disgust in people's eyes and heard the savage whispering that he's a soulless automaton at best and a demon from Hell at worst. And it tears at him to know that his mother is not his mother, but with that knowledge came the wondrous gift of meeting Aaron, his brother, who becomes his childhood defender and one true friend. John can't bear not knowing why he and Aaron were not conceived in passion, not born in agony, but constructed, purpose-built of tiny bits of flesh, rent and torn and slapped back together to be grown in sterile vessels. Aaron wants him to forget it all and live his life, but how can he? The UGS, the United Genetics Services, the ruthless corporation from whose assembly lines spew the cookie-cutter clones and replacement organs for all the world, made them and won't stop testing them. He watches his older brothers begin to suffer and die without explanation, as the headaches begin...
