Thus have I briefly delivered unto your Majesty my opinion touching the employment of this charity, whereby that mass of wealth, which was in the owner little better than a stack or heap of muck, may be spread over your kingdom, to many fruitful purposes, your Majesty planting and watering, and God giving the increase. This was Sir Francis Bacon s recommendation; his reason for such advice being simply that he was not himself included by Sutton in the list of Governors. King James did not wholly follow his advice; but a short time after, the Governors received a polite intimation that his Majesty would graciously accept a donation of ten thousand pounds towards the repairing of Berwick Bridge, upon the river of Tweed. This, of course, they were obliged tacitly to yield, and for that purpose met at the Charter-House, on the 30th...
