Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

A LECTURE ON THE HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Lecture on the History of the University Archives The archives of an ecclesiastical institution, such as a University or a Cathedral Church, are essentially of two kinds: grants and confirmations of privileges from the Crown, the Pope, or the Bishop, and title-deeds of property. Such form the nucleus of our collection here in Oxford. As soon as the University acquired jurisdiction and powers of administration and of conferring rights on its members, other records came into existence, which are grouped together under the name of Registers, a name which in Oxford, as elsewhere, was applied in a loose and wide sense. The oldest of these are books of Statutes and Ordinances regulating the studies and the discipline of the scholars and the assemblies of the masters: we have them from the reign of King Edward III. Gradually they come to include the admissions of masters to Convocation and of bachelors to lecture (ad legendum); but it is a long time before we get anything like a complete record of graduations. When the distinct Registers of Congregation (that is of the assembly of masters possessing a special and limited qualification) begin in the sixteenth century, they contain what ought to be, but is not always, such a complete record. The Registers of the Convocation of masters regent and non-regent, the highest assembly of the University, are not found until a still later date, though some records of their proceedings are occasionally inserted in the Registers of Congregation.
