Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a saga; spread over two novels, of seemingly impossible love. The series plots the journey of John Craigs a highly intelligent young man born of humble origins, whose life is transformed by an accident, which leaves him handicapped. His future is played out in the period of history from 1900 to 1946, the tension between relationships, honour, pride, privilege, resentment, hate, and forgiveness. Experience with John the fears, sadness, and uncertainties of two world wars with their lottery of life and death, the only constant is love and the product of love, hope. As she brushed against him, her hair now loose, entangled itself around a button on his coat, immediately she sobered, as she realised she was bound to him. Oh dear, forgive me, John. I was lost in the fun of the game, now look what s happened. John was obliged to steady her, as she untangled her hair. When her hair was freed, she overbalanced and fell forward against his chest; she glanced awkwardly towards John, then back down to where her hair had been...
