When he thinks of home, he thinks of the beautiful big baobab tree at the centre of the village. In his new home, Maiko feels a connection to the small spruce tree in the front yard -- it's seven years old, the same age as he is. The tree sings to him and shares his secrets. When he learns that the roots of the tree are growing too close to the house, putting the little spruce in danger of being cut down, Maiko tries to save it. He knows all too well what it's like to be small and planted in the wrong place.
