Alice MacGillivray, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Riding Horseback in Purple has been described as a MUST read for ANYONE considering buying a horse, by horsewoman Patti Jo Walter, well-researched and perfect for the beginner equestrian, by dressage coach and judge Deborah Fox, and a journey chronicled with insight, wisdom and humor, by trainer Lori Albrough. Author and horseman Dr. Allan Hamilton says it should become the bible for those wonderfully enthusiastic middle-aged souls who are pondering whether to return to their life-long passion for horses and finally making the jump into owning a horse of their own! It is increasingly common for mature women to get their first horse-or first horse in decades-around retirement age. Some of these woman-horse matches are successful, but too frequently they don t work out. Such failures can leave women feeling unsuccessful and leave horses in precarious situations. The author has set out to help women connect with great horses so that they can grow, learn, and enjoy active lives as partners with their horses. Alice MacGillivray covers basics such as whether you re ready for a horse, how to find the right horse and how to build a relationship with your horse. However the book is much more than basics. The author is an expert in adult learning and many readers and reviewers have loved the book for the stories, the deep dive into learning and unlearning, the explorations of leadership, horses as ways of connecting with nature, and the beauty of relating to animals who see the world very differently than we humans do. The breed featured most strongly in the book is the Norwegian Fjord: a rare and versatile breed often promoted as good for...
