Figure 1: Percentage of DDSs by Type of Minimum Education Requirement for New Disability Examiners No educational 22 Combined requirements amounts to over one-third General Educational 4 of the DDSs Development (GED) 57 10 High school diploma 8 2-year college degree (associate) 4-year college degree (bachelor) Source: GAO analysis of responses to its survey of DDS directors, April 2003. Note: These figures represent the lowest possible educational level a DDS requires for a new examiner, regardless of the type of applicant for the job. Data provided in the figure do not add to 100 percent due to rounding. One DDS did not answer this question. To enhance the skills of both new and experienced examiners, SSA provides a number of optional training tools to the DDSs, including written materials covering new examiner basic training, interactive video programs supplementing basic training and providing refresher training and updates on policy changes, and materials and presentations provided by the regional offices and SSA headquarters. However, states...
