Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Unpopular Review, July-December 1917, Vol. 8 The American mind needs just such a stimulus to thinking all around every question. The freshness of its point of view is invigorating. The crying need of the weary old world is to get away from conventional viewpoints; conventional morality and conventional taste. It needs men and women who not only see things with their own eyes but do not fear to say that they have seen. We are living by habit and going to our death in as deadly a routine as if each soul was not a fresh and wonderful eternal adventure. [This is interesting and very suggestive. It is really our intention to stand up for most of the conventional morality and conventional taste. But we confess that many a point of view from which they have hitherto been mapped seems to us no longer tenable, and we often try to base our surveys upon new ones. Editor] Amid the avalanche of fiction tumbling down upon us, it ought to afford a refuge for some weary souls. I have read with the liveliest interest a copy of The Unpopular Review and have found, indeed, something Different. It is bright, crisp, snappy, zesty. The only thing I don't like about it is the name. - Well, I guess I'll have to subscribe for it too. I have thoroughly enjoyed it. In an age when all the magazines of the country are running headlong in one direction, and dragging after them the people who like to have their thinking come ready-made, it is quite refreshing to meet a periodical which is distinctly different, and which has...
