INDIAN GIVER (PAPERBACK)

Leapfrog Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Poetry at its most satirical and courageous. A tremendous book. --Seamus Heaney Few voices in American literature are so honest and daring. --Mark Strand One of our most brilliant poets. --Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz I feel the primal grain and temper of the genuine here. --William Heyen A lament, a protest, an inextinguishable song. --Sherod Santos Among the best and most original poets in America. --Stanley Kunitz Nothing short of splendid. --Robert Nazarene The kind of energy found in the poems of William Carlos Williams and Gary Snyder. --Joseph Bruchac These poems tell harsh truths of hopelessness and genocide. The confusion of children whose religion is forbidden; the ironic poverty of a lottery winner; an alternate American history in which Columbus turns and sails away-- in deceptively simple language, we hear the protest of survivors. Indian is not a derogatory word. It s what we call ourselves. AFTER A SERMON AT THE CHURCH OF INFINITE CONFUSION At ten, Mary Caught-in-Between came home from sunday school, told every animal and bird and fish they couldn t talk anymore, told her drum it couldn t sing anymore, told her feet they couldn t dance anymore, told her words they weren t words anymore, told Raven and Coyote they weren t gods anymore, said god was a starving white man with long hair and blue eyes and a beard who no one loved enough to save when they nailed him to a totem pole. John Smelcer has written over forty books of poetry and prose. He is a member of the Alaskan Ahtna tribe.
