CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 236 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. In a quiet field in middle England, four teenage aliens live a peaceful solitary life hidden away from the human race. For twelve years they have had no contact from the few humans who know of their existence, but throughout this time the things they needed to survive have been provided for them. But now something is changing, and the four friends are growing uneasy as the security they have enjoyed for most of their short lives is slowly being taken away. Then one night their worst fears are confirmed. After a very-unexpected and even more unwelcome visit by two men dressed in black who threaten them with futuristic weapons, it becomes obvious they have been betrayed - and someone knows the secret they have tried so hard to hide. And when two nights later the four friends become three, they know they have to take their destiny into their own hands. They must get out in the big wide world. . . or die. One of the four kept an extensive and very detailed diary of the terrifying events as they unfolded. This book is her incredible story, and so it is perhaps best she introduces it to you. . . TELETUBBY RESURRECTION Ok, this might be a bit of a shock. Perhaps best to make yourself a cup of tea, sit back and remember - not everything you see in the media is what it seems. In my case, that's probably an understatement. So just suspend disbelief for a while; if I can then so can you. Quite how we've gone from the lush comfortable greenery of a field in England to the dark depths of the New...
