Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Baseball Unraveled is a must have in the Coaching of Baseball library. It is a textbook that will make a terrific difference in the future of sports. While most books focus on what has happened in baseball, this book helps every team and player as it identifies why it happened. Statistics and performance vary from player to player and from team to team, yet each year there are teams that continually rise to the top and others that constantly remain unsatisfied. A huge amount of speculation occurs in MLB when a player changes teams and (amazingly) his production changes dramatically. All of the statistical analysis goes haywire, and even Moneyball has no answer for what a player goes through, sometimes for the better, sometimes for the worse. This book provides answers and methodologies to overcome. Baseball Unraveled defines the visual memory of the baseball hitter as he prepares to hammer a round wooden bat into the very center of the flying object. Though he draws upon previous experience, he continues to be disadvantaged in favor of the pitcher by a margin greater than 60 . It explores why, in 1941, Ted Williams achieved a greater margin than anyone since--against pitchers in Major League Baseball for an entire season. It explains why it is highly unlikely anyone will ever again hit above .400 for a full season. This book identifies the difficulty for pitchers, both when at home and at other venues and gauges ball movement on the Neeley Scale. Exploring many arenas that are affected by hot and cold weather in various baseball venues, it reveals an often overlooked aspect, identified as: The Phantom of Baseball. Written...
