Polity Press, United Kingdom, 2007. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Crime in an Insecure World investigates the alarming trend across Western societies of treating every imaginable source of harm as a crime. It locates this trend in the 21st century obsession with insecurity fostered by neo-liberal governments. It explains why selected issues of national security (threats of terrorism), social security (benefit system integrity), corporate security (liabilities for harm) and domestic security...
