

Swords of David

By L. J. Feinstein

Louis Feinstein. Paperback. Condition: New. 296 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Defending the Promised Land Antonio Bastone lives a double life as an entrepreneur with both dark and illustrious connections and as a member of the covert operation Swords of David. His objective: to eliminate or neutralize those who seek the destruction of Israel, thus threatening world peace. The SOD operation takes Antonio and his cohorts intelligent and sexy Ziva, bodyguard Benjamin, and Franoise, a beautiful Mongasque woman with a shadowy secret into the world of European aristocracy, international society, and high-stakes gambling. Though dedicated to the quest for peace in Israel, each is willing to take risks that could prove fatal in order to accomplish their goal. With unexpected help from some Turkish bandits, the team returns to Italy, thinking their mission is completed only to be summoned back to Israel for a new assignment. The fate of the world hangs in the balance. A gripping, intricately plotted novel an adventure thriller that's highly in tune with reality. Avi Lugashi, former sergeant major in the Israeli Defense Forces Swords of David is a definite all-nighter, recommended to anyone who enjoys electrifying exploits mixed with international intrigue. Mr. Feinstein's book has all the...
