Excerpt from Sea-Side Sports and Rambles: A Tale for Boys in Words of One Syllable Hark! I can hear it now! There it comes round that point. See how the thick smoke puffs up through that large black pipe. Yes, Charles, and what a crowd there is on the deck. Where will the steam-boat stop? At the wharf, and then all those on board will land with their goods. I should like to go there, Charles, and see the folks all land from the steam-boat. Well, James, we will run down there, if I can get old Ben Brace to go with us; if not. my Aunt will not think it safe for us to go in such a crowd. Who is old Ben Brace, Charles? He is a great friend of mine, and has spent much of his life in ships. He lost one of his arms in a great sea-fight, and now he lives with us. I can go where I like with him.
