It captures an intense emotional journey, from the romantic moments of togetherness, through painful loneliness, to hopes of redemption and liberation. The author has leveraged his observations from real life and blended his wild imaginations to manifest a journey which has no destination but stark realizations. Love is an endless journey! A journey many go through by sailing along the wind, and some risk their all against the wind. The intensity of a true love can fuel both passion and dejection toward insane levels, depending on whether you are winning or losing it all. Love can bring the best and the worst in us. If you are blessed to have a love that brings the best in you, then cherish every moment of it. Though the poems are expressed from the heart of a man, The Heart Vendor is an attempt to celebrate, empathize, and provide a companion to all souls on the endless journey of love.
