Municipal Organizations in Latin America: Buenos Aires, Argentine Republic (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Bureau of American Republics

Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Municipal Organizations in Latin America: Buenos Aires, Argentine Republic The city, municipality itself, is divided into 20 parishes (parroquias), corresponding to the wards of a (north) American city. From these parishes, on a basis of population, representatives are chosen by ballot of the citizens to form a body called the Concejo Deliberante, corresponding in most details to our Common Council. These officials serve without pay for a term of four years, one-half of their number being elected every two years, however. This so-called deliberative body chooses from among its members a President, a First and Second vice-president. These officials serve as provisional substitutes for the Intendente whenever occasion requires. The great departments of the municipal government may be classified as follows: Finance, which includes the functions usually understood in such a department; Public Works, having charge of municipal buildings, water supply, sewers, streets, paving, repairing and opening of streets and alleys, administration of building laws, control of public markets, bridges, parks, squares, and monuments; Security and Hygiene, giving particular attention to buildings like...
