The poems of Rabindranath Tagore are among the most haunting and tender in Indian and world literature, expressing a profound and passionate human yearning. His ceaselessly inventive works deal with such subjects as the interplay between God and mortals, the eternal and the transient, and the paradox of an endlessly changing universe that is in tune with unchanging harmonies. Poems such as Earth and In the Eyes of a Peacock present a picture of natural processes unaffected by human concerns, while others, as in Recovery, convey the poets bewilderment about his place in the world. And exuberant works such as New Rain and Grandfathers Holiday describe Tagore's sheer joy at the glories of nature or simply in watching a grandchild play. William Radices exquisite translations are accompanied by an introduction discussing Tagore's Bengali cultural background, his social, political, and religious beliefs, and the lyrical meters and verse forms he developed. Contains a new preface, chronology of Tagore's life and works, and updated suggestions for further reading. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
