Stapleton is seated at writing table in act of closing a letter. Rings for butler. (Enter Harvey, the butler.) Stapleton - (Reading letter; seals it and hands to butler). Harvey, do you think you can get this letter to the post office in time to catch the Limited for Boston? Harvey - (Glancing at the clock). The Limited goes through here at eight o clock, Sir, and the mail closes about a half hour earlier. It is now 7:15 - I ought to make it in ten minutes, and have five minutes to spare. Stapleton - Don t let anything delay you, for that is an important letter. (Harvey starts to go.) And, Harvey, you had better inquire at the office to make sure, and let me know. (Harvey starts a second time.) And, Harvey, (handing him a coin) buy a special delivery stamp and paste it on the letter before mailing....
