Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Co-Operative Mills and Bakeries: The Plunkett House, Dublin The Irish Agricultural Organisation Society addressed to the Library an inquiry in connection with its work in promoting more extensive wheat growing, asking for particulars as to the working; of co-operative mills and bakeries in other countries, with a view to finding out whether institutions of the kind might profitably be established in Ireland, and, if so, on what lines. The Librarian entrusted to me the task of investigating this subject, and I have embodied in this publication the results of my investigation. It is to be regretted that, owing to the European War, the Library was cut off from many valuable sources of information, as I have been unable to obtain full information on co-operative mills and bakeries in Germany. Nor have I been in much better case in gathering detailed accounts of various societies in France and Italy, which I required for my purpose. Some French periodicals, which I ordered, cannot, owing to the disturbed state of France, be obtained, nor have I been able...
