Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The British Almanac of the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge: For the Year 1829 The Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, on the 1st of January last, submitted to the public the British Almanac for 1828. This was almost the first attempt in this country to produce an Almanac that should not only be useful to all classes, and of which the information should be wholly of a popular character, but which should be purified from the superstitions, prejudices, and indecencies which have characterized some of the Almanacs of which the circulation has been the most extensive. By a Parliamentary Return of the year 1828, we find that the Stamp Duty paid upon the Almanacs of England amounts to 30, 136. 3s. 9d. - which, the duty being Fifteen-Pence upon each Almanac, exhibits a circulation of 451,593 annually. It may be safely asserted that two-thirds of these publications contain some large portion of the matter just described; and they thus keep alive a spirit of ignorance, utterly opposed to the desire for sound and practical information, which distinguishes our own times. The Society s Almanac for 1828, although published when the year had commenced, had a very large sale. The success of this attempt convinced the Committee that a large body of their countrymen have no taste for those astrological absurdities, by which their understandings had been habitually insulted. The information which their Almanac supplies is applicable to the wants of all classes of persons. Its conductors pretend not to foretell the weather, because the science of meteorology is far too imperfect to furnish the means of any calculations, beyond very general inferences, from the course of...
