14 Hands Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 297 pages. A story of slammed doors, rejection, ridicule, and ultimately a tenacity that produced the 3 movie of the year with no help from Hollywood. Author of the National Best Seller The Soul of a Horse: Life Lessons from the Herd, Camp was told by industry experts not to bother with his first film; that it wouldnt work. He proved the experts wrong. Film buffs, aspiring writers, and directors will find Camps story inspiring. After an award-winning career in movies and television, Joe Camp at it again with a new career as an author. His best seller The Soul of a Horse is in its ninth printing and is changing the lives of horses and people all across the planet for the better. Camp has written, produced and directed seven theatrical motion pictures cumulatively grossing well over the equivalent of 600 million in todays dollars, making him one of the most successful independent filmmakers of all time. WHAT THEYRE SAYING ABOUT JOE CAMP AND THIS BOOK: Joe Camp is a master storyteller. - The New York Times One cannot help but be touched by Camps love for animals and his eloquence on the subject. - Michael Korda, The Washington Post There are life lessons to be learned here that affect the quality of your life. Read this book and feel your heart open. - Mike Thompson, Writer-Producer of Universals hit film Love Happens Who Needs Hollywood is FANTASTIC. . . I LOVE IT!! I literally couldnt put it down yesterday. Its such fun. - Marjorie Samuels, reader To say too much about Camps compelling book would be to spoil much of the beauty and simplicity of the story. The tightly-written, simply-designed and powerfully drawn chapters often read like short stories that flow from the heart. -...
