Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . So you or your teen is interested in becoming an attorney. Congratulations! Good luck. You have a long and adventurous journey ahead of you. Now whether you are interested in becoming an attorney for the hottest music group in America, or representing your client s failed business, you will be reading and I do mean A LOT of books that is not necessarily on the topic of entertainment or taxes. You will be reading about the Constitution. And you will be reading about torts. You can count on that. But tort is a boring word. Let s call it negligence or personal injury, two words we are very familiar with and, most likely, have experienced at least some part of your lives in some capacity. In any ordinary pre-law lecture, sometimes just reading and hearing a lot words may not be enough. Sure, you can remember all those laws and scenarios explained to you by your professor, and hats off to you if you can, but let s make this a lot more fun shall we? LEGAL TOONS: NEGLIGENCE will entail a lot of what is taught in class and we will use scenarios in which YOU are familiar with. We use examples include negligence in social media, riding a bike, drones, or God forbid when you get into a fight. This book offers over 100 zany illustrations of real life situations to help you easily remember many law terms and procedures. We also include a quiz. Laughter isn t just the best medicine. Laughter here is a tool. You recall that funny scene in the movie theater. You recall that joke your friend told you at a party. Like such,...
