

Star-Dust: A Story of an American Girl (Paperback)

By Fannie Hurst

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When Lilly Becker eked out with one hand that most indomitable of pianoforte selections, Rubinstein s Melody in F, her young mind had a habit of transcending itself into some such illusory realm as this: Springtime seen lacialy through a phantasmagoria of song. A very floral sward. Fountains that tossed up coloratura bubbles of sheerest aria and a sort of Greek frieze of youth attitudinized toward herself. This frieze was almost invariably composed of Estelle Foote, a successful rival in a class candidacy for the sponge-and-basin monitorship; Sydney Prothero, infallible of spitball aim; Miss Lare with her spectacles very low on her nose and a powdering of chalk dust down her black alpaca; Flora Kemble with infinitely fewer friendship bangles on her silver link bracelet; Roy Kemble, kissing her yellow, rather than yanking her brown, braids. And then suddenly, apropos of nothing except the sweet ache of Lilly s little soul, the second movement would freeze itself into a proscenium arch of music, herself, like a stalagmite, its slim center. At this point, Melody in F veils itself in a mist of...
