Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book explains step by step how to make a papier mache human head. It is good for home schooling. The book is for anyone who wishes to develop skills working with paper and glue. In the book the papier mache head is made from the inside out. First a base platform of cardboard is created. Then on that base platform a profile of a human head is secured to the middle. On that cardboard profile many panels of chipboard are glued. then those panels are braced. Over the panels and over the braces strips of newspaper are then glued for an outer skin. the book explains how to make the eyes, nose and mouth. The process, as set forth in the book, is sort of addictive, step by step by step and then: done.
