Adults may explore science fiction while young children delve into fantasy. Although the Runaway Bubble is created on the early childhood level it has been spiced with action, clothed in adventure and peppered with excitement. It meets the needs of the gifted child to speculate, evaluate and maintain. In a world of technology pushing kids in learning to cope in the speed-generation Children are robbed of being read to at home by parents. The Runaway Bubble has been tested in various grades at the Walter Douglas Elementary School in Tucson, Arizona. The reader was astonished at how awestruck the kids became. It was like sitting in front of children mesmerized in curiosity as the faces of the bubble expressed the mood of the moment. Each bubble book is advanced in and excels in adjective superlatives without the child realizing he/she is building an a foundation of an extensive vocabulary, reasoning and provoking through processing grammar.
