

Lucia s Masks (Paperback)

By Wendy Macintyre

Thistledown Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Lucia? Masks follows the journey of six strangers who meet by chance after fleeing the psychic defilement of a barbaric totalitarian state and travel North to where they can create a free and humane society. The novel interweaves their personal histories with their experience and encounters as they journey together. The principal voice belongs to Lucia; the group? forager, an aspiring sculptress, who once cleaned office buildings for a living. Sickened by the moral decay and the dominant culture? obsession with pornography, she has chosen to seek spiritual renewal and has chosen to remain a virgin. When she leaves the city, she takes with her a ball of clay and a copy of the death mask of John Keats. Her companions in flight from the city are the Outpacer, a former extreme hedonist and philanderer, who now hides his face and identity behind a monk? cowl; Bird Girl, a young woman constantly searching for books from the past because the libraries have been razed and all reading material is now proscribed; Chandler, a teen who was born and raised in the ? gg? a self-contained domed fortress constructed by...
