Russell Traughber, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Acclaim: The language is understated, but quietly beautiful, and I find myself invested in Jabonkah as she s portrayed on the page, not only because of what happens to her, but because of her view of the world, sometimes sweet and sometimes shrewd, and always strong. Rebecca, agent The story is compelling and the writing is extremely strong-some of the metaphors are wonderfully original. Moreover, the author manages to capture the child s voice perfectly. Valerie, professor Description: Jabonkah Sackey s only desire in life was to be like her mother and to be left alone. However, being born deep in the African bush in 1948, her desires didn t really matter. Cursed with an abusive father, Jabonkah was saddled with the plans he had for her. She is sent to the Society as punishment, where women from her own tribe perform the ritual of female circumcision. Six weeks later, Jabonkah returns home to the continued beatings until she is eventually disowned and sent away to live with a missionary by the name of Mother Stevens. Unfortunately, it s with Mother Stevens that her real struggle begins. Will Jabonkah escape the oppression and misery that is ruling her life, or will she succumb to her depression? Set against the harsh setting of mid-century Africa, Driving the Birds takes...
