Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Toulouse in the Renaissance; The Floral Games; University and Student Life, Vol. 1: Etienne Dolet (1532-1534) In the spring of 1919 I was stationed at Toulouse as the American Dean of twelve hundred American soldier students in the University. While performing my duties in connection with the Army Educational Corps, I became interested in all phases of Toulouse life, and especially in the Academy of the Floral Games. This interest was heightened by my close personal friendship with Monsieur Joseph Anglade, professeur d'Etudes Meridionales in the University and Mainteneur of the Floral Games. Through Professor Anglade, I had the privilege of visiting several times the Hotel d'Assezat, home of the Academy of the Floral Games, and of attending the annual meeting of the Academy of the 1-3 of May. After becoming personally acquainted with the Mainteneurs and learning the history of that ancient body, it occurred to me that some phase of the history of the Floral Games would make a good subject for investigation. When the American Mission, which visited France in the summer of 1919 to aid in...
