Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln, With the Immortals And now there have sprung up all over this land Lincoln organizations, who follow annually a program which has for its sole object to bring before and explain to the people of his Union - young and old - the great services rendered by him to make his Union free and mighty and respected by all the nations of the world - because he made it an emblem of righteousness, an example of brotherly love, a people loving and pursuing justice. His heritage of unselfish advice to the plain people - and he concerned himself mostly with those only - because the vast majority of his fellow-countrymen were plain people, is now and has for the last seventy years been slowly absorbed. His appeals in his own day seemed to reach those common people they understood Father Abraham - whether it be the starving dole receiving cotton spinners of Manchester, England crippled by the blockade, which prevented the exporting of cotton - or the plain people in the marshes at Shilo, at Vicksburg or in the Wilderness - they all understood him - and went straight into. The shadow of the valley of death - because he asked it. The so-called leaders could not respond so quickly. How could you expect the Cabots, the Adamses, the Sumners, the Seward s, the Chases, the Lees, the Davises, the Longstreets, the Beauregards and the rest of the aristocracy of the North, as well as of the South, to stoop or rather look up to - for like Saul he towered over all - this crude frontier giant, who would talk in the patois of the frontier, who like...
