Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sermon on the Perfection of God: In the Imperfection of His People My Beloved and Worthy Son: The present hour, I have received your letter, dated Minneapolis, July 9th, 1858. I was deeply affected by the following paragraph: I attended a lecture, preceding evening prayers, at the College, by Rev. Dr. Squiers; the subject of which was the necessity of moral evil; the vexed question - in which he maintained, or endeavored to maintain, with much inconsistent reasoning, That moral evil is a necessary consequence of the existence of a moral system. He said, The nature of intelligence is free-will. I asked him, afterwards, if it was independent will? He could not get along very well with that question. - I was amused, that I should come so directly in contact with one of the greatest champions of views so opposite to those, which I have sought to defend. - On this subject, God has instructed and enabled you to defend the truth before many witnesses, on your application to be a candidate for the...
