

And the Sun Still Dared to Shine: Returning the Memory of the Holocaust to a World Too Ready to Forget (Paperback)

By Peter Scheponik

Mazo Publishers, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. And the Sun Still Dared to Shine is a poetic memorial to the Holocaust, based on historical documentation provided by accounts of survivors. This book consists of seventy-nine free verse poems, which flow together to form a highly imagistic, historical memory. Avoiding any tendency toward sentimentality, these poems focus on the tragic events in the lives of those individuals who endured the terror and the torture of genocide. And the Sun Still Dared to Shine keeps alive the memories of those individuals who perished under Germany's darkest period when Hitler and his Nazi followers implemented their most heinous and systematic slaughter of European Jews.
