Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.NIST SP 800-60 August 2008 This guideline has been developed to assist Federal government agencies to categorize information and information systems. The guideline s objective is to facilitate application of appropriate levels of information security according to a range of levels of impact or consequences that might result from the unauthorized disclosure, modification, or use of the information or information system. This document includes two volumes, a basic guideline and a volume of appendices. Users should review the guidelines provided in Volume I, then refer to only that specific material from the appendices that applies to their own systems and applications. The provisional impact assignments are provided in Volume II, Appendix C and D. The basis employed in this guideline for the identification of information types is the Office of Management and Budget s Federal Enterprise Architecture (FEA) Program Management Office (PMO) October 2007 publication, The Consolidated Reference Model Document. Why buy a book you can download for free? First you gotta find it and make sure it s the latest version, not always easy. Then you gotta print it using a network printer you share with 100 other people - and its outta paper - and the toner is low (take out the toner cartridge, shake it, then put it back). If it s just 10 pages, no problem, but if it s a 250-page book, you will need to punch 3 holes in all those pages and put it in a 3-ring binder. Takes at least an hour. An engineer that s paid $75 an hour has to do this himself (who has assistant s anymore?). If you are paid more than $10 an hour and use an ink jet...
