Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dear journal, Today s date is one that I will never forget. Two years ago today, I was diagnosed with Stage 4 breast cancer. One of the reasons that I remember it so well, because the diagnosis occurred the day before my twin brother, Kyle s, and my fifteenth birthday. When I told Kyle s and my mutual best friend, Brett Ford, Kyle s girlfriend, Brett s fraternal triplet sisters, and my best friends, Kelly, Courtney, and Sara, they were beyond devastated. To add on to the devastation, I told them that I would have to spend the summer at The Long Cancer Center in Houston, Texas. As it turned out one summer turned into one year. Due to how aggressive that my cancer had become, and all of the surgeries, chemo, and radiation treatments that I needed, I was enrolled into the cancer center that my parents owned, The Long Cancer Center. The bright side of being in the hospital for that long of a time was that I was able to keep up with my school work, successfully complete ALL of my AP English courses that I would ever need to take in high school, spend time reading my bible and praying, and work on writing lyrics. On June 24th, 2016, I was released from the hospital and placed into Long Rehabil- itation Facility, which is the other facility that my parents owned. After an entire year of residing at LRF, I am finally returning home tomorrow to Denver, Colorado. My Mom is flying in tonight. In addition to returning home, I am also excited about seeing my family and my best friends. The...
