Creating Characters Using Writing Workshop

By Christine Depetrillo

Raphel Marketing., United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 277 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Creating Characters using Writing Workshop by Christine Depetrillo is a complete program of instruction for teachers of grades 3 through 8 to help students learn how to create believable characters in their stories. The lessons in the book are designed to mesh with a Writing Workshop teaching model, although they can be used outside of that framework as well. Each teaching activity in the book is aligned with one or more specific Common Core Standards for Writing, Reading, and Language. Each of the four chapters addresses different aspects of character development, with five teaching lessons in each chapter. The book is designed to take students from their first concepts of potential characters to creating fully formed, fleshed-out characters. The book includes everything teachers will need when teaching character creation: printable graphic organizers that teachers can use with their students as they work through the lessons, along with checklists to assess the quality of the students work. Depetrillo suggests books for each grade level that include examples of strong characters, and she offers professional resources for teachers who...
