Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The albino French nobleman Paen of Aquitaine is summoned by King Stephen of England to undertake a scheme of vital importance. Bound to the King by a mutual wickedness Paen tries to atone for both his and the King s sins by undertaking a secret mission designed to bring peace to the realm. During the course of his commission, accompanied by the psychopathic Gitred, he encounters evil and self interest at nearly every turn. Will Paen fulfil his mission and build a stronghold in Whitby, Yorkshire? Possessed of powers others would dream of Paen is forced to use these in increasingly imaginative ways in order to achieve his objectives. He faces many challenges as he is forced to deal with his inner demons and the torment of just being himself. This novel seeks to challenge the readers preconceptions about the supernatural world and how it shapes events. Set in the 12 th century this tale echoes through to modern times as Jenny Barnes of The Futurologist Weekly discovers a strange secret in the cellar of her house in Valence, France. Prepare to see old fears through new eyes as Paen encounters witches, vampires and freak manufacturers. This Gothic tale is set against a disturbing backdrop of mystery, murder, anarchy and political intrigue.
